

Linea Named Best Organisational Excellence Consultancy

News Release

Linea Group Ltd has been named as the winner of the Award for Best Organisational Excellence Consultancy in the 2017 M&A Awards, hosted by Acquisition International.

The prestigious M&A Awards, running for a 6th consecutive year, focuses on the outstanding efforts and achievements of all those involved in identifying, coordinating and completing the important deals which have the potential to change the fate of businesses and industries.

Technology, healthcare and transport are but a few industries predicted to boost the volume of M&A activity throughout 2017.

The award research and judging panel is an international, multi-lingual collective of individuals, with backgrounds from a myriad of fields such as business, media, journalism, history and European languages. The panel is led by a veteran academic leader with international pedagogic & coaching experience who is well versed in research, fact-checking and mediation; allowing the panel to operate with efficacy and dependability.

Brought to readers by a UK-based publisher, in a monthly magazine that seeks to inform, entertain, influence, and shape global corporate conversation through a combination of high quality editorial, rigorous research and an experienced and dedicated worldwide network of advisors, experts and contributors.

Launched over five years ago, the magazine has rapidly risen to a circulation of 108,000 people in over 170 countries and regularly attracts editorial submissions from some of the biggest players on the global corporate landscape, including KPMG, EY, PwC and Deloitte.

CEO, Ian Chambers said 'We are extremely pleased and proud to have been given this award. Organisational Excellence is the basis of Linea's working practice, which of course is assisted by our team of highly qualified consultants.'
